

Hey William, dude I'm not intentionally dodging you I have gone through a bunch of shit which I'll tell you about in a letter. I have been moved to a unit and the address will be at the end of this.
Dude the only letter I got from you was the one with hearts on it and I tried to write but I got the letter back. I figured I would never hear from because of all the moving but I got your reply off the blog site. I should be hear for at least 6 weeks and I hope to hear from you again. Peace ☺ Downy,
