

"Forgiving A Rapist"

You still call me a rapist
Yes! I crossed the line
& trespassed upon flesh
But where in time does forgiveness get to play out
Hours have turned into days
And days into "24" Years
Over and over I hear these words
He's a rapist
I'm ashamed of my violation
Let my sin sink beneath the sand
& allow me to rise as a man -
With my head held high
Please let forgiveness & healing
Do her Perfect work
