

WHERE'S THE LOVE ???

Aug 8, 2012

Gabby Douglas has just done something that will have her in the history books FOREVER. I have personally watched this amazing, Beautiful, Young Black Woman Captivate the world with her athletic ability, charming intellect and smile that will light up the world. Not only is she talented, but she is and should be an inspiration to other young black females. While reading a newspaper article, I found myself disgusted with the criticism and outright hating that Crown women and gay hair stylists are doing. For them I have one comment: Really?? Are you really that self-centered? To overlook the fact that a 16 year old Black woman on the world's biggest stage brought home two gold medals is stupid! And you women are mothers saying this about someone else's daughter. A perm? A kinky hairline? The textures don't match her own hair! Where do we get this shit? I mean come on Black people! Listen, Latisha Jenkins and Lary Sims, allow me to wake you up from your stupidity. First of all, Gabby is only 16! What type of message do you want to send to other young women in her position? She is not there to compete in a hair show, would you rather her have no medals, but a nice 'doe? This was no beauty contest and she didn't have to look pretty for you, me or no one else. So you go fix your perm, weave and wig because I'm sure you have one.

Secondly, Gabby is in the Olympics! That's somewhere you old hating fat asses will NEVER have a chance to get. She is there to Swoon, Not Play. She is there to win, Not lose. She is representing US! Not The United States, but US. And the Somer we got that in the hearts and not the feeble ass minds of Todays Black Woman the better we would be. You Stinking Ass Black Women Today are the downfall of this economy and Society. Happy Headed, Welfare getting, Project living, fair baby father having ciss dummies with no education! KEEP being Stupid! ☺

Thirdly, When did a PERM or a Hairdo validate a Black Woman's Status in the world. Those types of rubbish is the reason why blacks will never rise to the top. It is why we will never achieve the level of Superiority that is right in front of us. As A Culture, We African Americans are last, behind everybody else, And we have nobody to blame but ourselves! At every turn, we have a negative thought, Word or demeanor towards our fellow Brother/Sister. It is never anything positive. Stupid Ass Latisha Jenkins never thought once to take a second to consider the prestigious achievement that Gabby obtained the other night. I AM willing to bet that Latisha or any of the fat ass, bald headed critics couldn't accomplish one tenth of the things that Gabby did on Sunday. And then you wonder why Black women are so low on the totem pole. Nobody wants a Stupid female!

And Yes, You Are Stupid for Saying Some Sh*t like that.
This Social Media thing has really gotten out of hand when you have everyone feeling the need to talk bad about someone else who they are not able or willing to confront.
These harsh diatribes would never be voiced if Gabby and her family present to defend themselves.

Gabby is a very pretty young woman and she does not need the aide of a Perm, Relaxer or any Smooth-N-Shine to make her any more appealing to the world. What she has done at the Olympics has landed her endorsements. It has landed her on the front of cereal boxes and made her the face of the Olympics and she'll be remembered forever
by the world.

So, I applaud Gabby on her winning two gold medals
I hope to see her in the Olympics in Brazil in 2016.
Keep being an inspiration to young women around the world, especially young black women here in America.
And to the young women out there really striving to make it, know that your hair is the most insignificant piece on your body. It can fall out tomorrow. You DO NOT need to have any chemicals put in it to make you look better, you are already pretty. A hair style doesn't make you who you are. You look good in a ponytail. If any one tries to tell you any different, keep it moving.

I hate that Blacks have become so Americanized that we would down our own Sister.

Why do we bring something negative out of so many positives? And to LATISHA JENKINS, I hope you personally read this: You and your Crew can attempt to be "White" by getting all the perms and relaxers in the world, but you will always be black. Your hair isn't straight for a reason, you over thought about that.

To Every Woman Out There: You Are Beautiful
Until Next Time, People, Think before you Act because even though Stupidity is not a Sin, It Should be.

Sincerely yours,
Quashion Huskey
