Dear Ms. Southerland

Greetings! I sent an Affidavit to you on July 26, 2012 concerning this August 1, 2012 Hunger strike that I'm fixing to start here in two days. I do not want to do this hunger strike. I'm being forced into it, in order to try to stop Warden Barry V. Reddish and his Administrators from retaliating. Every one seems to want to make Reddish a God, with supreme authority. yet this man is corrupt, dishonorable and lacks integrity.

He stands above and beyond the law, because you'll allow him to. He's one of Union Counties good ol boys. Well, as you can see I'm not impressed with MR Reddish. Never have been, never will be.

And those alleged DUI rumors for which staff was spreading, well as we all know where there's smoke there's fire. And with him (Reddish) retaliating against me so hard, it makes me believe that there's a DUI cover up. I'm going to make sure the media gets all over this and digs up the amber where that last little bit of smoke is coming from.

Barry V. Reddish will have no intention of allowing me to win this hunger strike. I won the February 2004 hunger strike against him, for abusing me, and other inmates under a rule he was misapplying, as a continuous form of punitive isolation, I have an application for a temporary injunction before the Union County Court. and under ARTICLE I, section 23 of the Florida Constitution. I will be refusing medical intervention see Singleton v. Castello, 665 So 2d. 1099 (Fla. App 4 Dist 1996) It's not my goal to die, but if I have to, and I may have to, to stop this warden. then I will. But I'm here and now trying to convince you to take action so this hunger strike doesn't result in my death.

You can go on my blogs and read what this man has done. My D.R. and D.C. history speaks for itself. This has been 15 months of retaliatory action, that I and my mother has endured at the hands of Warden Barry v. Reddish. I'll back all of what I write, and say with a voice stress analysis.

Like I say, death is not my goal. But I'm afraid it's going to come to that. My life is in your hands for you have the power to stop Barry v. Reddish, and I'm hoping you will do so.

Thank you very much for your time.

Respectfully
