

To Tell The Truth...

8-10-12

OK - I have to come clean here... some, not all, but some of my blog posts have been presented as a serious submission but the use of subtle irony - missed - may have caused them to be taken more seriously than they were meant and such as it is, perhaps left some of you confused about points or directions of those blogs in particular

For instance - a recent blog asked future prez Romney (serious) to NATIONALIZE (irony) the prison system and stop the Nazi Union of clowns (double irony) in the interest of national security (serious).

Hello? McFly?! You can't NATIONALIZE something and not be a Nazi - (Neo-Socialist). But in truth - I think that PRIVATIZATION is the key - take the system AWAY from government & give it to big business (CCA & GEO for instance). So the irony was missed because I am a doofus and put it too deep to perhaps be obvious

I will avoid such mistakes in the future. I know most readers belong to the dumbest generation yet (READ BOOKS: THE DUMBEST GENERATION and THE DUMBING-DOWN OF AMERICA) (no irony here). Therefore I will make my HONEST points and do the twisting in stand alone blogs.

Hope that clears things up a bit?
