MUG SHOT!

By: Debra E. Jones

A crime get committed, and you go on the run,
shoot at the police, and sparks come from their gun.
You had robbed a bank, and got all the loot,
police don't realize, that you know how to shoot.
Said "he's armed and dangerous" be on the look out
you take people hostage, as police surround the house.
Talk about negotiations, and how you want a plane,
setting you up for the bait, as snipers aim for your brain.
Trying to get you out, and you tell them no
you're dying with the hostages, that's how they'll all go Hostages are still alive, as you load another clip,
shoot one, as the others become a bargaining chip.
one start being a hero, talking beligerent and smart,
you aim for his chest, and hit him straight in the heart.
Don't have on a ski mask, because you're a little bold,
the man you shot is shaking and body is turning cold.
Police are fed up, because they keep hearing rounds
hearing people scream, and bodies dropping to the ground.
Police bust down the doors, and hit you in the face,
beat you with flashlights, spray you with some mace,
you start resisting arrest, now you wanna spit,
Police yell "stop!" and hit you in the mouth with his stick.
Tell me was it worth it? Getting beat up by the cops?
all you got from the crimes, were lumps on your mugshot!
