

L I V I N G E Y E S

It's going on a long
A long time, yes, it is
And it seems like the Sun
Will refuse to shine.

And now what about you?
I know the pain your heart holds
Because our situation speaks
Of dark emotions.

And even though we cry hard sometimes
I need for you to know
That I refuse to give up my life;
Don't ever ask me the reasons why.

Just be glad that tears
Only fall from living eyes
So take a real good look
Because I'm still alive.
Tears only fall from living eyes,
Appreciate these moments we have to cry
Because tears can only fall from living eyes.
