

Good Friends are hard to find Bee is a friend of mine
While im feeling lost in time
Bee helps me shine
So far yet so close no hairs and no toast
Just simple words and kindness Bee knows where my mind is Its so hard to find this friendship in blindness
The time is, now here in the present Something real in essence The lesson im learning daily is to embrace what I feel lately Maybe ~~maybe~~ I may seem crazy but these days I dream crazy Bee makes me this way
I have no shame to say I can now smile, laugh, and play and I thank Bee today
I thank you Bee
