Debleys.

How's it going? I hope you're doing alright out there.

I recently found out what transcribing a post means and I have to take the time to thank you for typing all the chicken st I send in (HA HA).

I've been trying my hardest to reach out to the free world to simply be heard and advocate my desire to change my life and circumstances. To know people like you assist in some way with this endeavor is really cool and I'm very appreciative.

Thanks for all your time and assistance Debleys and feel free to contact me with any words of encouragement, advice, or wisdom.

Respectfully,
- Marcus -
