

50 Shades of Gray Part 2 Pg 1 of 1

My current cellmate has the book titled 50 Shades of Gray. I wrote a post asking for comments on the book because I ~~was~~ been able to read it.

I never got any feedback but I'm reading the book now and let me say this... Very erotic. I'm only on chapter 11 but so far I'm totally lost in the story line.

I'll send another post when I'm done with the book but I do desire to hear what you all out there have to say as well.

Questions?

Are there women who desire to be dominated by a man sexually?

Are the sexual exploits in this book a reality for any one out there?
