"AMERICA HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATOR!"

America... the leader in human decency, a country that judges all others and condemns them on human rights violations. A country who points fingers at others and criticizes them on the treatment of their citizens. When in all actuality, America is the "WORST OFFENDER" in human rights violations!" The only thing about America, is its better at concealing most of the abuse that takes place, yes land of the Free, home of the brave, but its all a big lie; For America's depraved.

some of the abuse that i've endured, from strip cells, assaults and other retaliatory acts, are nothing, to some of the beatings and rapes that take place inside of America's prisons, every single day. I can guarantee you right now, in some prison, or jail in America, some corrupt correctional officer/guard is beating an inmate, who is helplessly bound in chains, some where in the great united states of America right now, some "perverted officer" right now, is force some inmate, male and female into inappropriate sexual conduct. And most of this abuse, you will never hear about. For America is "good, at concealing its human rights violations." America is good at putting up a "False Facade." using its justice system and the united states constitution to hide behind! America is a deceptive nation! that puts on a show for the rest of the world, sells dreams and falsehoods to those gullible enough to buy into them.

Its one thing to talk the talk, its another thing to walk the walk, and America is great at talking the talk, but its not worth a damn when it comes to walking the walk. some cases do slip through, and you'll hear about them, and there will be some publicity. But most of the abuse your never going to hear about.

There was a case in the 1990's where officers took a night stick (club) and shoved it into the anus of a male inmate!"

America
Human Rights
Violator.

For every one incident that you hear about, theres a hundred more that you'll never hear about. They go unreported for one reason or another. The shame of the inmate, or fear ect ect.

most American's arent going to like this blog post. For American's like to be lied to, they like to stick their head in the sand when bad stuff happens, they dont want to see it or acknowledge it. But this is the hard core reality of it. America is the leader in human Rights violations. And now more so than ever, due to Bill Clinton's PLRA (Prison Litigation REFORM ACT) that he signed into law in 1996. This law limits an inmate's filing in the courts, restrict's the Constitutional Rights, and protection of the inmate, and allow's "Criminal Correctional Officers" a better opportunity to abuse the inmates under their power.

America is a Fraud, its that plain and simple. eyes... I understand, the truth hurts, but America, you are what you are, and you are the number one human Rights violator, assault's, rapes and the list goes on. so before you go sticking your nose in Iran, Iraq and these other countries business, you may want to think about cleaning up your own back yard, cause America you got snot hanging out of your own nose. so wipe it clean before you try to clean some one else's. so America learn to walk the walk, then and only then should you be talking the talk.

Regretfully submitted

The unhappy American
