

Nate A. Lindell 2012

Readers, sorry that this is only a bad carbon copy of the original. I will be sending in, in two weeks, a bear cub that'll have you girls wanting to adopt it. Promise!

I liked the photo I based this on. The wolf looked happy, in the outdoors, being a wolf.

Be happy being what you are. If you're not happy, maybe you're not being what you are?

Nate.
