Hey Kati! Got your last note & wanted to send you a longer reply.

On my mom's side of the family, the last name is "Guité." Well, most of them dropped the apostrophe, but kept the spelling. I thought, by a strange fluke, you might've been a long lost cousin. Guess not, but it's still really nice to have a curious mind like yours following my blog. You're exactly the kind of reader I seek.

Don't be nervous or shy either. Yeah, I'm a bad boy, but have an outlaw sense of honor. Watch The Outlaw Jose Wales to better understand what I mean. Especially feel free to share your thoughts, additional info, etc. on the subjects I write about.

This is a blog for free thinkers. Sure, if someone says something lame logically, I'll tear into it, if it needs tearing vs. a gentler approach.

So, you're interested in aliens? I used to watch X-Files, Star Trek, Fringe, ↓ — I enjoy the plots, the costumes, the possibilities, but I keep a critical eye open. That's my suggestion to you.

Hmm, I did have some partial printout of — ah, here it is:

If you're willing, you can send me pgs. I only have 5-8. It rants about government conspiracies to control our minds, alien abductions & psych' experiments on prisoners. From what I read, there's no evidence cited for much of the claims & the evidence that is cited — from the pages I have (5-8 of 1-10) — is too vague to be evaluated/judged. But, at the very least, it's full of interesting possibilities. Love to hear your analysis.

That's about it. Thanks for any transcriptions you've done & do.

Please tell others about my blog: chat rooms, whatever; please pass on my URLs.

Thanks & you're welcome to snail mail me too. ↗

Sincerely, Nate
