

[A Poem]

"Close But far Away"

I am a forgotten Gem
Tucked away in Chains
I beacon you not to fear
Life is too short not to trust
Love must be unleashed without a meter
Can we seal up meaningless conversations
We all are needing a friend
And learning to be a friend first means all conversation isn't so meaningless
Our pain never ceases
just cloaks its self along the way
And leaving us little bumps & bruises
