

I Need To Know You Part 2

Hi Again,

I reached out to you awhile ago simply to let you know how much I need to know you. I was so sad when I never got a response and felt maybe I was fooling myself to believe that using this platform would help me find the woman I've desperately desired to know and meet one day. Then it dawned on me...I should never feel foolish about trying to know and meet you.

I still can't see your face or physical features but I feel the love, peace, comfort and pleasure of your presence. I have yet to laugh with you, create memories, or grow in this world with you but I dream of the joy in doing all those things. I have yet to taste your lips, hold your hand or make love to you but I get butterflies at the idea of doing so.

To this day you have no race, age, shape, height, hair color, occupation, or handicaps..

your only a dream, a fantasy, and desire of the need I have to love and be loved by a woman as amazing as you. You wont physically be real until your eyes glance my posts reaching out to you and you respond finally revealing the woman I've dreamed of all these years... that will be an amazing day.

If it is you...reading right now then I beg you to please let not another day day go by of us being apart. I need to know you and will dream of our life together everyday until you arrive in my world.
