"What should I do?"

What should I do? How should I handle this situation of dealing with Warden Barry v. Reddish and his Criminal Administration? What can I do about their lying? What can I do about them falsifying state documents, writing fraudulent disciplinary reports (DRs) and violating state law? All good questions. I just don't have the answers.

I've dealt with murderers, rapists and all types of criminals throughout my life, but I've never had to deal with such low life, two faced, sorry individuals like the ones in this Administration. Men who smile in your face as they tell you lie, men who have as much honor and integrity as former president Clinton, lying under oath, as he swore "I've never had sexual relations with her." Yeah Reddish has about that much honor and integrity. Well, that's giving him too much credit. Way too much!"

No doubt you've read his memo, speaking on his code of ethics. The thing is, is when a man has to tell you, "I have a code of ethics." In actuality, it means he has none! For a man with a "true code of ethics" leads be example. You see in him the code of ethics, for he lives by it, he doesn't talk the talk, no... he walks the walk. Something Warden Reddish can't do. For Barry v. Reddish has always lived and worked under a code of unethical conduct. We seen it in his mentor Crosby, in, Valdez v. Crosby 450 F.3d 1231 at 1237-1243 (11th Cir 2006). We've seen it, in what he's done to me, as well as my mother, over the past 16 months, with his unethical criminal conduct, from having state documents falsified against me, to having me assaulted. Criminal acts!" so it's as I say, a man who has to tell others, that he is a moral, ethical, honorable individual, is a liar. A two face low life no good liar! For a man who has morals need not tell a soul. For you will view his actions, and witness his morals and ethical ways.

I... am a Fool, and my actions speak of Foolishness. I should have had enough since not^{to} challenge Warden Barry V. Reddish, by going over his head and going to Tallahassee. And surely... it was very Foolish of me to write about the fact, that staff was running around talking about how MR. Reddish got pulled over for driving under the influence of alcohol, and because of who he is, Union County Sheriff's Officer's swept it under the rug. Yes that was very very Foolish. And I've endured his wrath, where he went as far as building a closed in cell to put me in, thrown away 265. mail, interfered with my access to the courts and all his other criminal acts, and instead of being smart and stopping, I keep right on writing about him. I never claimed to be smart. Actually I admit to being stupid. Here I am stupid, messing with an idiot who lack's morals. What should I expect but unethical unprofessional criminal conduct. For I'm dealing with criminals. What should I do? Any comments are welcomed.

Sincerely
