Dear Deblegs

I received your message the other day. Thank you and everyone at Between the Bars for making these blog sites possible. I really and truly appreciate having a platform to speak from and be heard. And I know they've been hearing me inside the F.D.C.

Wish there was a counter so I knew how many people was visiting the site. Is there any way to know that?

I'm hoping things are going to turn around for me here, with this warden being removed. I'm due to get out of DC. (lock up the hole) October 3, Five more days.

Again thank you for your help. ☺

Sincerely
Bonnie ☺
