

Big Will

PG 10F1

Since I been at my new prison I was cell'd up with a guy they call "Big Will". He did 12 years in prison, got out, got 2 college degrees, got a beautiful fiance, a good job, and created a wonderful life and family for himself.

Although he's had a set back that's put him in prison now, it hasn't or doesn't diminish his accomplishments. "Not in my eyes." I'm learning so much from him mainly because I've done over a decade in prison and seek to succeed in similar areas as he has once he got out.

All Big Will does is talk about his fiance's family. What he's done and the true man he is has been missed by them all, while I see in his face daily how much he misses them.

Very often if ever have I met guys in here who impact me in life changing ways but Big Will has. I'm grateful to have met him and wish nothing but good things to him and his family.

Note: Never be ashamed to learn from those around you.
