

Louisa,

I recieved Your comment to a Post Called "Bulim". I Want to thank You for all You had to say and I must say Your words were "very" Powerful.

" In reference to Your question:
" Part of us is secretly pleased its not us! What do you think? "

Well I think theres " alot " of truth to what You wrote and its a very insightful observation. I never really looked at it like that but in all truthfulness I think thats exactly why I never did anything. I also think the whole " what can I really do? " thought comes to mind as well.

Im totally on board with all the talk these days to stop bullying and even passing laws against it. Ive tried to stay in the loop with the movement as much as possible given my circumstances.

You appear to be a solid person with a kind, compassionate, and open mind so I hope in some way your able to extend who you are to help others.

Really, enjoyed your comments and want to thank you again. Feel free to contact me directly at:
