

Daniel Gwynn Blog Update

Date: 9/29/12

The John Jay College Exhibit

The John Jay college exhibit's opening reception is reported to have been beyond expectations.

There are 7 of my paintings on display, along with a statement about my case until Oct. 19th. The Shiva gallery is on the corner of 59th & 11th (New York), and it's open to view from the street. So if you happen to saunter by, take a peek at the "Prisoner Art for Social Justice," and grab a booklet of the "Artists' Statements" as well as the DVD of the "Widener Spoken Word" on display at the information table.

I wish to congratulate Mrs. Ann Marie Kirk, Art For Justice Director, for all of her time, hard work & sacrifices in pulling together this exhibit, in conjunction with the John Jay college organizers.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Daniel Gwynn". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, sweeping initial "D" that loops back under the rest of the name.