

Reply ID: 2h24

StripeySox

10/9/12

Thank you for your heartfelt concern for myself, Terrance Williams, and my fellow prisoners. By now you may have heard that Terrance Williams was granted a stay of execution; the DA's appeal was denied. Terrance is able to move forward now and petition the court for a Life sentence. With the evidence the prosecutor, Andrea Foulker, hid from the court, he should have no problem receiving a proper sentence. The prisoners & staff (some anyway) are very happy he has the chance to live to fight another day.

Daniel Gwynn

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Daniel Gwynn", with a long, sweeping underline that extends to the left.