VENTURA HIGHWAY... 10/3/12

I actually don't know much about Ventura or its' roads but I can't get the SONG out of my head. For about 3 weeks I have had that rolling around in there repeating over and over and over... I hate you 'AMERICA' (the group)

So I'm trying everything I know to make it stop- thinking of other songs like 'Help Me Rhonda' or 'Mandy' or 'Jingle Bells' or ANYTHING! JUST PLEASE, God! Make it stop!!! But no... It just keeps going...

Also I can't stop thinking about a restaurant down that way on Highway 101 near Thousand Oaks. It's called 'El Paseo' and it's been there since Mexican food was invented. It is FANTASTIC. If you ever go to Southern California, PLEASE DO stop in and get VERY WELL FED. Mmmm! Good prices, big plates. GO!!

To add to that, I can't stop thinking about UK women (British, Scot, Irish, Welsh) and how they all have WONDERFULLY shaped bottoms (bums-to you From England & vicinity). Has anyone else ever noticed that? English chix just have great - No, SPECTACULAR behinds. Thank you, ENGLAND

Pontiac used to make a mid-size car called 'Ventura' Did you know that? Help me Rhonda, get this F*#%ing song outta my head.
