

I been putting posts up for about a year now and just recently started getting a few responses. Its been totally fun to hear what everyone has to say and know that my thoughts, views and opinions are being heard.

If your new to reading my post please take the time to read my old ones too. I've posted tons of things on various issues and topics, photos of my self, and even poetry that I wrote.

Should you choose to read my old posting keep in mind I am no longer at the "Boscobel" ~~web~~ address and I've been transferred to this new Stanley address.

Obviously I'd love to hear from you and hope that something I've written inspires, encourages, or uplifts you in some way. Take care out there.
