

POETS ☺

I would hope that All of you are healthy and enjoying the Rest the nice weather.

I wished I had access to computers but I don't - I can't even touch them. I rely on Between the Bars to keep me updated on Responses from you and they do a great job. I thank all of you for your Responses - wish you'd leave an address - since I personally can't type a Response back; unless I go through Between the Bars.

I have gained 10 pounds since I was transferred. Yeah! Getting big as a beach Ball. ☺

I look forward to hearing from you again any one actually ☺; your comments have warmed my heart. (My New Address)
