

"The Help"

(My movie review)

Wow!.... Last night I saw the movie "The Help" via DVD and I'm telling ^{yall} ~~folks~~ out that the movie is every bit of; "intellectual, informational, tear jerking and straight up hilarious"!!!! ☺

I can't lie and say that the parts regarding Ms. Mini-Jackson's "chocolate pie" wasn't the funniest parts becuz maaaann! That was some funny S!*% for-real, not becuz of why and who Mini did it to but simply becuz she did it .Now, I figured that Mini-Jackson had done something to that pie but it would have never accrued to me exactly what until Mini-Jackson did until she said: "Eat my S@!#" ☺ L.O.L!! ☺ The look on both Halley's (?) and her mother Mrs. Waters (?) plus Mini's face in that scene was straight hilarious...☺☺L.O.L Then for the fact that everyone either knew, kinda knew, or wanted to know who ate that "chocolate pie" was in and of itself funny and blackmail at its finest...☺☺

Now lets be serious for a second becuz yall can't set and tell me that yall ain't never seen, heard of or actually done nothing like that before. Well not to "that" extent or degree but at least spit in a drink or two, dropped some bodies food on the floor then put it back on the plate, saw a roach crawl over some food, put mice droppings in homebodies food, pissed in some bodies drink, stuck a finger in some bodies food, yawned, sneezed or farted over it or something!!! ☺☺ HA, HA, HA!!!! (Be honest) ☺

My little bother got me like that a while back with the "piss and lemon-aid". One day he pissed in a cup then filled it the rest of the way with lemon-aid.... I'm justa drinking my butt off but when I got to the bottom which started to both "taste salty and get warm" I kinda looked at the cup, smacked my tongue and lips a couple of times then look at my lil-brothers face which solidified the reality of what just happened and to say the least {I was pissed}☺☺☺☺ but I couldn't trip too hard becuz I had did the exact same thing to one of my sisters several years earlier!!☺☺ Boy!!! those were the good ole' days!!!! Ha-ha ☺ L.O.L

Maaan!! Just think about what happens to the food behind the closed doors of those restaurant kitchens, especially those fast food joints....ugh!!! ☺

Nevertheless, my point is that "The help" is a must see movie becuz to see what those who were considered to be "the help" went through, witnessed and put up with back in those days should definitely be a good reason for us men of African decent to appreciate, love, honor and respect our black sistaz becuz as a man of African decent if you knew and or witnessed what our mothers, grand-mothers, grate-grandmothers, aunties, sistaz and female cousins etc. went through as "The help" back in those days you'll definitely respect both your-selves and "their" females offspring...."Period"

My grandma 95 years old and she's still kicken and breathing as if 25 Al-Hamdulillah=(All Praise is due to Allah) but the fact that she's 95 means that without a doubt she too was "The Help" for some white family or 2 or 3 and I'm tellin' yall, "grandma ain't never brunt no chicken" 😊😊. {Yall will have to watch the movie in order to catch that part)😊 but I'd bet my last dime that grams done made somebody "eat her S#$"!!! 😊😊 or at least drink her piss!!! 😊😊 ugh grandma!!! HA.HA L.O.L 😊

I must say though that "The Help" is a good and wholesome movie and it deserves every bit of the raving reviews that it got and much, much more and although this report aint all that detailed, it is ment to get yall to go buy and or watch that movie over and over and over again. Not to mention I wanted to see yall laugh or at least smile...😊

Oh!!!! Here's a question, is it true that women put "menstrual fluids" in things like spaghetti to get their man or boyfriend to fall in love????????? I've been hearing that all my life and so to this day if I get something that has red or even "orange" sauce in it I be like: "I'm straight, won't get me"😊.. After all, they do say that "the way to a man's heart is through his stomach" so for that very reason I've changed the path and standard for a woman's journey to my heart. But the ladies will have to write me personally in order to find out what that path and standard is...😊😊

Meanwhile, I'm out, but please yall, go watch that movie.....NOW!!! And please let me know via blog and mail what yall take is on it...Oh!! Yall could also tell me about the times yall done gave somebody some food or a drink with something BOGUS in it.....I wont tell...I promise!!!!😊😊
