

"Politics" World

October 25, 2012

President Barack Obama, has a passion for political activism that is rivaled by few. How can you know anything about politics? When you don't care who's in office. That's very important it impacts everything from what you eat, education, who you love, and where you live. As people of color so many others have put their lives on the line to help you gain the right to VOTE so take advantage of this opportunity if you don't that's an insult to HISTORY. I wish I could VOTE this year 2012, but I can't I'm incarcerated.

President Barack H. Obama is for students loans, Jobs and, the Economy has been his whole time in office. Birth Control Coverage making sure women get proper treatment for their bodies like pap smears, Cervical Cancer screenings, mammogram etc. He's for same-sex marriage just the Alternative Lifestyle period "Right to Choose". Middle-Class working people and, poor folks that's receiving government support. He's for Universal Health Care this is important in our country. He's for Human Rights period. Keep in mind this economy want be fixed overnight, He inherited ~~A~~ Mess. "Everyone in a position to VOTE GO out in due so Now. This is a Election like never before. Everyone's counts trust me."

His running Candidate Governor Mitt Romney doesn't have a plan for America at all "or the people that lives here". He's a PHONY just trying to get in the Whitehouse point blank He's for the Rich People ONLY. Don't let his WORDS FOOL you people Wake up! If he wins his, administration will benefit from all the work of the Obama Administration over the past FOUR years has done to fix our Economy. Is that Fair to President Barack Obama? "He Deserves another Term".

Now take all of this into Consideration American People.
