Thank you for taking the time to read my blog. I hope that others will see the meaning behind that post. I feel like it is very important to stay in contact with family and friends. It's hard being away from love ones, and not having any contact with them can have an affect and effect on a person's feelings and emotions. Love is a powerful thing. Every person, whether they let it be known or not, want to know that they are loved and that they still have some one caring for them. I hope you don't lose contact with your friend.

You are truly appreciated. Thanks for your comment.

Respectfully,

Ronald Blount
