Tijana

11-18-12 I woke up in the middle of the night and I could feel you here with me, your body wrapped around mine keeping my heart warm.

It rained all day yesterday - so I thought I would go out and walk along in the rain with only my thoughts and daydream but I felt someone on my right side when I turned to look it was your smiling face I saw

I can hear you giggling somewhere in the back of my mind as you read over my shoulder. God I love you

Me O My O My Love My Jeannie My Heart.

Merry Christmas

Jeannie's Lover, Steve

Precious dreams my love.
