

Tobacco, You Eeeevil Sumbeyotch!!

11/11/12

You really have to love these here United States of Moronica; in SUCH AMAZING places as Der State of Grahlitz Fohrnya, Coloridiot, and Smokington (CA, CO & WA For you newbies) I can legally take up a spliff while watching my kids' soccer game. I can go to special stores and Bogart beer-bong hits of Cush while the local fuzz smile and laugh right along with me!

For what it's worth, I can even legitimately teach my kids about the legend of the Zig-Zag Man while rolling fatties and chillin' to Cheech & Chong albums.

BUT...

IF I so much as light a cigarette... a good old-fashioned Marlboro Red within 2000 Feet OF ANYTHING IN EXISTENCE, I am ruled a leper, a horrible, evil and disgusting deviant of society whose sole existence MUST be criminal. People will cough, gag, butt-in, pretend they are dying, or even worse. This part is so stupid it shows exactly just HOW MORONIC society has become.

Thank God we have the miracle-side-effect-free gift-to-the-universe: Wonder-blunt Marijuana!!!! IT CURES EVERYTHING! And as opposed to Cigarettes which all cause cancer, disease, doom, nuclear disaster, genital bubonic plague, unwanted teen pregnancy and uh so much more(!!), ~~NOT~~ NOT Good Old-fashioned Marijuana! It solves all problems perfectly.

They call it 'DOPE' for a reason, People!!

Happy-Dosbie-Thoughts!
