

Anyone Know A Good Attorney?!?

11/1/12

So 8 years + after my arrest, and 6 years + after arriving in Der State Work-Kamp, The legal beagles at the CDCR are on my side, kind-of.

I have Filed Habeus Corpus (denied), letters (Ignored), Plea's (Ignored), 602 (inmate complaint) (denied) all to No avail.

Yet on 10/31/12 the CDCR wrote to my sentencing court advising them of my sentence being Illegal. I should NOT have received the amount of time I got. I should never have been sent to prison.

Duh. I've been saying that for years. NOW, 68-ish days prior to parole, they all of the sudden want to fix this. I'm happy, but I want to sue.

To top that off, in 8 years I have garnered quite a lot of my own evidence to vindicate me of some of this BS. and also enough to possibly gain a vacate-of-sentence.

I need a good attorney. A defense-driven pit bull. I have no cash, so I hope someone wants to hear MY side for once and will hopefully see what I see & want to defend it. Just the money from the illegal incarceration lawsuit should more than pay for the rest of it.

All this - And in getting out anyway - MAKES YOU WONDER!
