

Obamagain!

Yeah! It's over for another four years. Four more years of Republicans co2 blocking the President. 200 year theocratic plutocracy is perpetuated. Far be it for me to deny the theory behind socialized programs and taxing the rich to put them in their place. Fuck anyone who calls me a commie or socialist, but what works, works. Washington wouldn't work with a black guy, but it's worse an idea to work with a Mormon? That's funny. Why is there only two parties allowed to do anything anyway? It doesn't matter either way. There hasn't been a good president since FDR anyway. Well, voters, you get what you pay for. Good luck with this extension that you cried about possibly getting. Best of limited options I suppose.

Yes We Can!
