Dear Nicki ☺

It took a few months to get your sweet letter, Yeah! I really appreciated your feed back on my article. Oh! the reason why I just got your Reply is because I was moved and some times mail takes a little longer in prison. please forgive the space of time.

I like getting letters directly to me but if that's not your niche - than you can leave a message But do know Nicki - I do NOT have access to a Computer - In fact I'm not allowed to use one. If your interested you can write me at

I hope your Christmas is the best one and you continue to share your thoughts to words. Each thought truly is precious and can enrich another's moment as you did mine until then
