Dear ThinkB4U Act 1981.

Thank you for your comments. and I do hope you will write.

on my father, no I haven't seen him since November 1996, when he left out of here after our visit.

I do write to him. I wrote him a couple of weeks ago. I should be hearing back from him any day now. when we started writing it was very difficult, and I don't know that I'd ever want to be around him. He wants me to get off death row so we can be together. I love my father, but it's best like it is, cause I still have a lot of anger over him killing Connie. I still have a lot of guilt. It's one of the times I should have stuck to it, I told her "No" and that's where I should have left it.

Faith is something I lack, so I can't agree that she's in a better place. I can agree that she was cheated out of her life. "A Tale of Guilt." I can't read that story, it leaves me in tears. I haven't read it in years.

Thank you again for your kind comments. Please take care of yourself. Have a merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

In Peace & Love

Connie
