Dear S.A.H.

Okay - I love you to my Fellow Fallible human being, grandmother of two teenagers. and I hope you enjoy your steak and baked potato if I'm ever executed. et oh, I almost spelled potato with an e- on the end. And as you may recall our vice president Dan Quayle did that. which just shows even highly educated college men don't always spell correctly. I think I do a pretty good job under the circumstances. I mean - I wish I had a better education, I wish my ability to learn was on the level of the norm, unfortunately it's not. We can't all be blessed, with all things.

you left so many negative comments I don't know where to go. But you have the right, Freedom of speech, just remember this, I did not kill Ronald Willis. I didn't try to stop it, and that, is something I will always have to live with. Cause that, on my behalf, was a coward punk act. But I was also drunk, had I not been, I'd have never went along with it. which is why I hate alcohol, and I believe its the main drug, that should be "illegal".

mistakes happen, we're all Fallible. and I hope one day your not visiting a loved one on death row, and having to reflect back on what you wrote here.

But there's no hard feels. I wish you nothing but the best. Please take care. Have a very merry Christmas and a Happy New year.

In Peace + Love Tomie ☺
