since certain individuals want to comment on my bad spelling and lack of education, let's address that.

I never attended pre-school or K.G. I had problems learning early on, and I noticed it as a kid. Cause the teacher would explain things, and all the kids would get it, where I wouldn't have a clue, and I'd be too embarrassed to ask in front of all the other children, cause as we know humans are cruel, some crueler than a pack of wild dogs, one will jump on you teasing you and the rest will follow suite. Any ways I start the first grade and barely pass it. My life was already wrapped up in chaos, but by the time I get into the 2nd grade it's worse. I'm going back and forth between my mom and Dad constantly changing schools and classes.

This is how bad it was, one night I'm with my mom, I go to sleep in my own bed, only to wake up in the middle of the night in the back seat of a car heading to my Dad's house. My cloths were packed and my Granddaddy's shot gun was in the back seat with me. To this very day, I don't know what that was about. On top of that I was dealing with a sick individual who was molesting me.

I failed the 2nd grade twice. I passed that on the 3rd try and then I'd pass the 3rd, 4th and 5th grade's. Two weeks into the 6th grade because of my size and being behind two grades the school bumped me up to the 7th grade. Needless to say, I failed that and summer school. The start of the next school year 1982-83, instead of repeating the 7th grade and actually learning, I'd start the 9th grade. so I went from the 5th grade to the 9th grade without passing.

In the 9th grade I was in all special Ed classes. I barely passed. In September 1983 I would start the 10th grade at Fernandina Beach High School. But I was dealing with a lot of crap. My Dad had burned the house down for the insurance money. He did that because he was about to lose the house, and he had done this some where around the end of August 83. so we're moving to a new place, seen like every couple of weeks.

I was already using drugs, I had been smoking weed since I was about 11 years old. And alcohol I had all my life, my Dad gave me beer in a baby bottle. I don't think they knew back in 69, 70 the effects of alcohol. In late 1983 my Dad was sitting on the steps of a trailer we were renting in Zulee, I seen he was stressed, I asked him what was wrong, he said we didn't have any money, and no food and he didn't know what to do, so I made a suggestion for him to go to Glen's a drug dealer friend of his and let's start selling. I was already hanging out with all the pot heads in school. I began selling, and I stopped going to school and began hanging out on the streets cause I could sell more.

I dropped out of school at 15 years old in the 10th grade. I never learned algebra, verbs, nouns, pronouns and all that good stuff, I don't have a clue. That's stuff I should have learned in the 6th 7th and 8th grades. which as I just informed you,

I didn't attend.

In the 1990's here on the row, I wrote a request to get into the GED program. I was informed that I could not attend and participate in educational programs due to my being sentenced to death. I then attempted this again in 2002-03 and in 2005 only to be denied again and again.

I got a hold of a GED book, but it wasn't useful, without having a teacher or instructor to explain things and be able to answer my questions, simply reading it, didn't do any good.

Cause you can read something over and over again, if you don't understand what your reading then it's nothing more than a bunch of meaningless words.

And those who think my spelling's bad, you should have seen it in the early 90's. Wooo was it bad!"

Oh, and I had a Dictionary, it was stolen by officers on May 21, 2012 when they assaulted me and placed me on strip cell. I then had some one send me a new Dictionary that never showed. Several weeks ago, I did get a Dictionary in, I haven't had a cell light for over three weeks and can't see the words. And I don't have spell check.

Now you know and have a history of my extremely poor American education.

In peace and love

Jimmy ☺
