

"Christmas" December 5th 2012

Christmas is a time for giving.

So let's start living.

Christmas is about sharing gifts
people please be swifts.

Christmas is for eating delicious food.
it gets others in the mood.

Christmas is my favorite time of year.
let me make that clear.

Christmas is for the beautiful tree.
for everyone to see.

Christmas is a special time for you and a friend.
that will be together until the end.

Christmas is a time that some of us love.
plus we worship God up above.
