

One of These Mornings

Allah is the Master of time.
We can fool ourselves quite often,
By telling ourselves that we can
Put off certain important things;
Foolishly believing tomorrow is our!
And the next!

When we really don't know.
So we go on day-after-day!
Doing what we do without
Communicating or telling
And showing those we love
What they mean.
Then ... then, one of those mornings!
