Hey John.

I've written you twice in the past 12 days and sent you a card. I hope you received them. I did receive your letter snail mail on December 3.

This comment you left right here is disturbing, it has me concerned about you. For an addiction to any type of drugs is no joking matter. These drugs and your addiction is a one way path to hell. I know... I've been there, and this is where my path ended. So I want you to do me a favor. I want you to find some help. And you can't do it on your own. I know, I tried numerous times, and failed miserably.

A life of addiction, is not a life, cause all your doing is dulling your senses to escape the problems that you have. The end result is going to be death, jail and a life your not going to want. Trust me on this man, I know all too well. I was a pill user as well. or a pill abuser.

Now you need to find some place to get some help. I know that's a problem unless your in custody and that's not what you need. Go on line contact an NA. or AA. org. and ask them for some advice. And I'm asking you as a friend to please get yourself some help. I know you have to want it, I can't want it for you, and make it happen. you have to want it for yourself. But telling me, a former addict over my blog, I see that as a cry for help. And I really want to see you get some help. I'll be writing you through snail mail. I want you to take care of yourself, and please get some help.
