

Reply ID: XYXb

Saturday
December 1, 2012

Dear John

Greetings! I sent a card to you on Nov. 30 and a letter will be going out tomorrow, so you will receive those way before you receive this. Please let me know what day this reaches you. I'm curious as to how long it takes to get this posted from the time I send it out.

Yeah a lot of people in this country don't want to face the truth. For instance the Valdez murder and now more recently the Frank Smith murder. They'd rather put on blinders and cover their ears. And they call it whining when someone speaks out about the abuse taking place in here. The human rights violations, and other crap is okay with most Americans, should be no surprise, they don't give a damn unless it's directly effecting them. As long as their loved one's aren't being beat to death or murdered under our screwed up death penalty . . . they don't care.

I thank you for leaving your comment for your friendship and for having my back. I need it in here, as well as out there, with these "cyber bullies", who come on the blog leaving negative bully comments, hiding behind these pseudonyms, so thank you for your support. I'm looking forward to our correspondence and establishing a friendship. You take care of yourself. Have a very merry Christmas and a happy new year.

In peace love and friendship.

Bonnie