Thank for the comment & the transcribing! About them not being able to imprison my mind: I spent the last part of these 13 yrs. trying to make sure the STATE doesn't GRIND me down and change me. (THAT'S AFTER several yrs of NOT GIVING a FUCK!) I HAVE CHANGED over the yrs. But for the better. I've educated myself as best I can and took correspondence courses thru CRIMENON and FEMA. I've taken whatever courses available thru the education DEPT. & others. So I'm doing what I can to not let the Hated STATE imprison my mind, including keeping my thoughts outside of these walls. I'm sure a little Astral Projection would be a good thing! Maybe catch a few shower scenes! THANKS again.
