

Weighted Wings maisha mahalia

I have wings that should allow me to glide like the wind.
But my souls too heavy from all the turmoil within.
So many temptations and trials
all around,
I'm trapped by confusion and can't leave the ground.
How I long to be in the sky headed to my destiny, But my wings are weighted by the pain and hurt inside of me.
I don't know how to let go or how to be free,
I need God's healing hands to help uplift me.
