Trials and Tribulations, pt. 2;

Destination or Destruction, page 1

In this vast world of ours, we are constantly presented with choices. We all have thoughts of where and what we'd like to be in life. By our choices we dictate whether we are moving our destiny or to our eventual demise. Some people make it to their destination in spite of the circumstances that they were born in, and go on to create their legacy. While others allow their circumstances to make them, which leads to their destruction in the name of survival. Mostly all of Biblical prophets and heroes throughout history, overcame some sort of intense hardships on their way to greatness and supreme victory. To one obstacles faced may serve as a road block, but to others the same obstacles are used as steps. The difference being on one hand a person can go out into the world with nothing but a dream and the ambition to manifest said dream, and turn that dream/thought into a physical reality through patience, energy, and persistence. On the other hand a person can put aside his/her dream/destiny for material gain/money/lifestyle, and destroy who he/her was destined to be, along with their true happiness in place of or for contentment. the commercial way of surviving/maintaining in said family/community. Individualism is often placed under scrutiny by those who lack faith and are afraid of chasing their own dreams/destiny, so they wish to hold back from going after yours. People are to not to waste time with this, and you need to be doing that. In actuality if you aren't preparing for your destiny you are indulging in the biggest waste of time, and the ultimate dissatisfaction of life. Seeing the reality of self, and what you have to offer to the world is a hard thing to do, when you haven't taken the time to thoroughly examine yourself, your strengths and weaknesses, your talents and god-given gifts. Also we must respect the different views of others in this world in order for our views to be respected.
Women need to honor men's strength, as men need to honor women's intuition, and take to the sky as the stars we were designed to be. The worst destruction of self and self's happiness, is to not seek out the path to your destiny, and experience the joy of the journey getting there. Essentially, determination is the deciding factor.
