

In my experience, written records have served only to haunt people and to wreak havoc upon those who have set out to memorialize events and circumstances. As that is the case, you may be wondering what I am doing writing a blog.

The simple answer to that, is that I just don't care, and that there is nothing that anybody can say or do to me that can hurt me.

I am currently serving a sentence of 8 Life Without Paroles, which means that I will die in prison. I cut some peoples throats and so here I sit. The U.S. Supreme Court declined to look at my conviction, so my legal remedies have been concluded.

As I'm stuck in a maximum security prison, housed under 24 hour a day lockdown, I'm in a position where the prisons administration can't threaten or punish me.

Most importantly, I am the head of the Nevada Aryan Brotherhood (N.A.B.) so I alone am in a position to decide what is appropriate for discussion and what is not.

It can be seen conclusively, that I am a unique man, in a unique position, who lives, exists, and operates under unique circumstances.

My name is Jaramie Womack. My number is 65773. I live at P.O. Box 1989, Ely, NV-89301 and I have nothing to lose. I have dedicated myself to the preservation and betterment of the Brotherhood, my race, my family and to the total destruction of my enemies.

From time to time, I will write and share my thoughts, my life and my beliefs.
