

Niki,

I recieved your response to my post titled "Whats B.T.B Like". I must say thanks for responding and I hope to get those printed pages you mentioned... im just very curious what the site looks like from your end.

I was shocked to see 15 years constitutes a life sentence where your at... that means Ive almost served a life sentence in your country... wow.

I do have a couple more questions if you dont mind me asking:

- ① Do you pay for medical costs } Colledge out of your pocket or does your government pay for it?
- ② Have you ever had to recover from a major set back in life? IF so, what was the set back and how'd you recover?
- ③ What types of movies, music, and T.V shows interest you?
- ④ Whens the last time you laughed hysterically?

Take care out there Niki and I hope 2013 has been good to you so far.

Respectfully - Marcus

one more?... Can you figure out the average cost of groceries in my state... Milk, Bread, etc.? Thanks
