

The End of My Appeals

by Jeremy Pinson

The attached 34 Page Decision is the final door closing on my criminal appeals. It is now final, after many years, that I shall not be free until 2025. I actually have always expected to lose. This Court sealed this decision to prevent the public from knowing what all transpired on my road to prison but I have a right to disclose it and I do so now. I never did believe secrecy in Government was any Good.
