CITIZENSHIP - TRADE?!?

12-24-12

As It Were, I seem to have an international readership. Now, most people would find this un-useful, but as I am the creative type, I find OPPORTUNITY!

I am single and fun and worth doing business with. A marriage to a foreign woman would get us both a new passport.

I love most European countries, especially England, France, Germany, Holland, Finland and would be a fine addition to any foreign lands' population

I also think Canada, South Africa, Argentina, India and Russia are great too.

So - all you INTERNATIONALLY SINGLE LADIES - I AM AVAILABLE AND TAKING APPLICATIONS.

We can settle in whatever U.S. state you prefer...
im flexible!!

But Please Hurry and ask early to avoid disappointment - In America, guys fresh out of prison are a hot commodity in the Trailer-Trash-Jerry-Springer community of women!

Happy Thoughts
