If You Want to Help Me....

created 23 Jan. 2013

If you like what I write, support my blog & me. Here are some ways I am most in need:

... Postage-embossed envelopes, which you now can mail directly to me at my present prison:

Nate A. Lindell #303724

W.C.I. 200 South Madison St.

P.O. Box 351

Waupun, WI 53963-0351

I need 10 a week, forever postage. Please send some Airmail embossed envelopes (Nicki!) too, so I can send mail overseas.

... Prisoners Self-Help Litigation Manual, 4th Edition, by John Boston & Daniel Manville, published by Oxford Univ. Press. I need the soft covered version. It must arrive with proof it's paid for, in the business's packaging it came from, be new & softcovered - otherwise I can't have it.

... The most comprehensive softcovered dictionary, with etymologies, most words, etc. As a writer, I need it. Ideally, the Oxford American Dictionary, rebound in pleather or vinyl. I can't have hardcovered books in seg. Must comply with the same rules as the forenoted dictionary.

... earplugs * they must be ordered for me from one of the catalog companies listed on my profile page, sent to my new address. Really need 'em. Crazy loud here, always.

... shower shoes - must be ordered for me from ↑. I'm size 14. Prefer the Adidas with very thick soles.

... typing paper - must be ordered for me from ↑. I need 100 sheets/month.

... scented prayer oil - must be ordered for me from ↑. One a month. As I can't buy my own deodorant, I use this instead, & to drown the funk around me.

That's it! Well, copies/printouts of interesting news or information you suspect I might want to know about, especially if it's related to any of my posts, go ahead & send it to me. Feel free to note what you send me in a comment; I'll tell ya what I receive too.

Thanks to you who help,
Nate.
