Can You Imagine?

By Jordan E. Jones © 2013

- Can you imagine being in prison, with 25 to life?
- Can you imagine not seeing your kids or kissing your wife?
- Can you imagine 100 years hanging over your head?
- and the only way to be released, is you end up dead!
- Can you imagine waking up, and looking at concrete?
- can you imagine having nightmares everytime you go to sleep?
- can you see yourself somewhere, stranded on death row?
- can you imagine someone being there, or someone that's about to go?
- can you imagine getting caught up, and going to the hole?
- can you imagine getting out, and they quickly violate your parole?
- can you imagine being at the wrong place, at the wrong time?
- and they lock you up, and charge you with the crime?
- can you imagine being in prison, and the inmates get shot?
- all because they were fighting, and the guards told them to stop.
- can you imagine being surrounded by thieves, and drug dealers?
- can you imagine being in a cell, and your celly is a convicted killer?
- can you imagine being with your friend, who gets stabbed in the neck?
- and he thought it was sweat, and his t-shirt is soaking wet.
- can you imagine being on lockdown, and they won't let you out?
- can you imagine being alone, and there's no one to help you out?
- can you imagine being white, and having the charges dropped?
- can you imagine being "BLACK" and your life just all of a sudden stop?
- can you believe that all of these prisons are packed?
- can you imagine that there overcrowded with nothing but blacks.
- can you imagine being away, and fighting for your life?
- Not to be prejudice but you're not! because you're white!
- you wake up sweating, and you don't know what happened,
- you thought it was a dream, but can you just imagine?
