

LOVE DEFINED

LOVE : To willingly lower oneself to serve another. With this definition of love. I believe to be right and exact. This is not my definition. This is ALLAH'S definition. This term describes the motion of love rather than the emotional state. For that reason, love is something that can be proven, not merely felt, and therefore must be carried out and practiced for it to exist.

Knowing this. I have to ask the question: What if I am unable to do that which I want to do that would prove my love? For example. If I love my family. I will do that which is necessary to provide for them, protect them and assure that they want for nothing. If I truly love them I will not only WANT to do this. I WILL do this. My question is: What if I WANT to do the things yet, for whatever reason I am unable to do this? Do I not love because I can't or am I just lacking in other areas and do have love for them?

ANGELS: The messengers of ALLAH. I am fully aware of my name MICHAEL. The ArchAngel of ALLAH. Micha=WAR. EL=god. The god of WAR. The understanding of MICHAEL is imparative. Because when you see MICHAEL. It is too late. This means that ALLAH already sent you numerous warnnings. You did not adhere to them or you are being assisted against thoes who refuse the warnings of ALLAH. Iether way. michael COMES TO FULFILL THE OBLIGATION of destroying that which no longer deserves to exist. One must fully understand that If ALLAH destroys he is justified.

MICHAEL is special. Amongnst the Arch Angels I believe that MICHAEL is one of ALLAH'S favorite. Like Ji'bril. I bring this up because I am married to the attributes of MICHAEL. I am a warrior for ALLAH! Amongst the muslims I am around. I have been given the attribute MICA'EL ABDUL AN NŪR. (MICHAEL SERVANT OF THE LIGHT) What most people forget is that MICHAEL is full of mercy. He delivers his messages with the swiftest of justice and comfort of the collateral damaged.

It is my understanding that ArchAngels have 2 sets of wings. MICHAEL's 2 sets are of FEATHERS & METAL. All I know is that the colors of gold, purple and black are in the feathered wings.

I am asking if anyone has anymore information or can draw pictures for me, with the aformentioned info. I would greatly appreciate it.

WORDS TO MY PEEP'S

I believe that DISTANT RELATIVES by Nas & Jr. Gong is the best CD of this generation. I do not think there is a better CD to come out in the last 15 years (at least) that is better. I will post the words of a couple songs from the CD I love and think should be studied, but not enough to give away the CD. Go get this CD. Nomatter what type of music you like or what race you are. If you are living on this planet, you should go get this CD that has been out for some time now. If you already got it. Go get it again and share the message.

YO

I know my post are far and few in between. I ask that you bare with me and stay interested. Prison has it's own pulse. At times I am not comfortable enough to write because of what might be going on in here. I will return to my post, however. I am trained to do such. If you want to know something or have questions or just want to holla. Feel free to get at me. I am open. PEACE. MICHAEL *7)
