Re: People v. Bernard Smith, NA037383-01

Dear Mr. Smith:

The Honorable William Ryan issued an Order to Show Cause on your petition on December 27, 2012. The Order was mailed on January 10, 2013. According to the Order, the District Attorney has 45 days from the date the Order was mailed to respond. Please understand that because Proposition 36 did not include any enforceable time limits, Judge Ryan is using the constitutional standard of "reasonable time."

The District Attorney will respond by conceding the petition, opposing the petition, or asking for more time. If the District Attorney concedes the petition, we will move immediately to resentencing. If the District Attorney opposes your petition, we will begin the process of fighting the opposition. If the District Attorney asks for more time, we will object. However, it is unlikely that the court will refuse the District Attorney a reasonable request for more time.

If the District Attorney concedes, and you signed the waiver of appearance form we sent to you, you may not need to return to court for resentencing. If there are any challenges to the petition or sentence, your presence will be necessary.

You will be contacted when there are future developments in your case. In the mean time, continue to run a clean program and avoid any disciplinary issues.

Sincerely,

Harvey Sherman
